

ISAIAH'S PARABLE OF THE TWO BUILDERS

Isaiah 28:14-20

Therefore hear the word of the Lord, you scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem!

Because you have said,

 and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in it.

PARABLE OF THE Short Bed & Narrow Cover

The Setting of the "Inauguration" (Luke 4:1-5:11)

1. The stones into bread (4:1-4)
(Use power to provide food for self - Jesus refuses)

2. The kingdoms of this world (4:5-8)
(Worship the devil and receive authority - Jesus refuses)

3. From the pinnacle of the Temple (4:9-13)
(Throw yourself down - stones will not hurt you - Jesus refuses)
He is glorified by all - in Galilee [4:14-15]

4. The INAUGURATION (4:16-28)

5. From the brow of the hill (4:29-30)
(They seek to throw him down - to stone him - They cannot)

6. With authority and power he commands unclean spirits (4:31-41)
(The demons submit and cry, "You are the Holy one of God!")
He is popular in Judea [4:42-4]

7. A miraculous catch of fish (5:1-11)
(Use power to provide food for others - Jesus is willing)

Suggested conclusions:

Regarding meaning:

1. The Inauguration scene is given special prominence by being placed in the climax of these seven scenes.
2. The temptations are lived out and reversed in the events which immediately follow them. Jesus will use his power to provide food for others, not for himself. He already has power and authority over the evil spirits, who already know him to be the Son of God. Furthermore, they have no power over him. He will not throw himself down from the pinnacle of the Temple, or allow an angry mob to throw him over a cliff. Stones feature in each account.

Regarding composition:

3. Numbers 1-3 form a unit as do numbers 4 and 5. Scene 6 and 7 each stand alone. These seven have been brought together to form a mosaic composed of seven inverted scenes with a climax in the center.
4. Luke most likely received the original "mosaic" from the apostles in Jerusalem (probably in written form, cir. 56-58 AD). He may have added the historical note (4:25) to explain the story of Elijah.
5. The brief references to the popularity of Jesus in both Galilee and Judas make clear that Jesus was not opposed and rejected by the larger community around him. That is, the hostility in Nazareth was not a typical reaction to his preaching.

THE INAUGURATION Luke 4:16-30

And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up;

- 1a. and he entered (as his custom was) on the Sabbath into the synagogue.
 - b. And he stood up to read;
 - c. and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah,
 - d. and he unrolled the scroll, and found the place where it was written.
2. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me
for he has anointed me
 - a. to preach good news to the poor. PROCLAIM - FAITH
 - b. He has sent me * to proclaim to the prisoners - freedom, JUSTICE - FREEDOM
 - c. and to the blind - recovery of sight, COMPASSION
 - b. 'to send forth the oppressed - in freedom' * JUSTICE - FREEDOM
 - a. to *proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." * PROCLAIM - FAITH
3. d. And he rolled up the scroll,
 - c. and gave it back to the attendant (huperetes),
 - b. and sat down;
 - a. and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him.
4. And he began to say to them,
"Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your ears."
5. And all bore witness against him [emarturoun auto], and were amazed at the words of mercy that proceeded out of his mouth; and they said, "Is this not Joseph's son?"
6. And he said to them, "Probably you will quote to me this proverb, 'Physician, heal thyself; what we heard happened at Capernaum do also in your own country.'"
And he said, "Truly, I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his own country."
- Amen, I say to you,
7. a. there were many widows in Israel.
 - b. in the days of Elijah (when the heavens were shut for three years...)
 - c. and Elijah was sent to none of them,
 - d. except to Zarephath of Sidon, to a woman, a widow.
8. a. And there were many lepers in Israel
 - b. in the time of the prophet Elisha,
 - c. and none of them was cleansed
 - d. except Naaman, the Syrian."
9. When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath. And they rose up and put him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong.
But passing through the midst of them he went away.

Points of Comparison Between:
Qumran Scrolls 4Q278 + 4Q521 and Luke 4:16-30 + 7:18-23⁶

- | QUMRAN (4Q278, 521) | LUKE (4:16-30; 7:18-23) |
|---|---|
| 1. (4Q278) The Holy Spirit rests on his Messiah | 1. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me |
| 2. (4Q521) The Messiah is exalted | 2. For He has anointed me (i.e. made me into Messiah) |
| 3. (4Q521) To preach good news to the poor | 3. To preach good news to the poor |
| 4. (4Q521) Release for the captives | 4. Release for the captives |
| 5. (4Q521) Opening of the eyes of the blind | 5. Opening of the eyes of the blind |
| 6. (4Q521) Raising up of the downtrodden | 6. Set free the oppressed |
| 7. (4Q521) His mighty works: heal the sick | 7. What we have heard you did at Capernaum do also here in your own country (i.e. heal the sick . Luke 4:38-40) |
| 8. (4Q521) His works: Raising the dead | 8. Luke 7:22 affirms the raising of the dead as one of Jesus' Messianic acts. |

Conclusions

1. The scene at Nazareth is theologically "in the same pond" with the visionaries of Qumran.
2. These comparisons provide strong evidence that Luke 4:16-30 was composed before the fall of Jerusalem in a Jewish atmosphere that was aware of Qumran's views.
3. In Jewish sources here in 4Q521 the act of "raising the dead" appears for the first time as part of the Messianic agenda. This same theme appears in Luke 7:18-23.
4. Luke 4:16-30 has deeper Jewish roots than previously supposed. The comparison with Qumran gives weight to the probability that the text in Luke is a condensation of an historical event.
5. Jesus starts with Isaiah 61:1-2 and edits in 58:6. Qumran appears to begin with Ps 146:7-8 and edits in parts of Isaiah 61:1-2.
6. Jesus is perhaps saying to his home town,
" I am the Messiah of God. In me the promises of God in Isaiah are fulfilled. My Messiahship is in harmony with much of what you hear from the visionaries in the Jordan Valley. Yet, I will not endorse your racism or your narrow nationalism."

² This is the place in the text of Isaiah 61:2 where the quote in Luke 4:19 stops.

0. *Cry aloud, spare not,
lift up your voice like a trumpet;
declare to my people their transgression,
to the house of Jacob their sins.*
1. A. *Yet they seek me daily,
and delight to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that did righteousness
and did not forsake the ordinance of their God;*
B. *they ask of me righteous judgments,
they delight to draw near to God.
'Why have we fasted, and thou seest it not?
Why have we humbled ourselves, and thou takest no knowledge of it?'*
2. *Behold, in the day of your fast
you seek your own pleasure,
and oppress all your workers.
Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with wicked fist.*
3. *Fasting like yours this day
will not make your voice to be heard on high.
Is such the fast that I choose,
a day for a man to bow himself down?*
4. *Is it to bend down his head like a rush,
and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him?
Will you call this a fast,
and a day acceptable to the Lord?*
5. *Is not this the fast that I choose:
to loose the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the thongs of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?*
6. *Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover him
and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?*
- 7 A. *Then shall your light break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up speedily;
your righteousness shall go before you,
the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.*
B. *Then you shall call,
and the Lord will answer;
you shall cry,
and he will say, Here I am."*

THE INAUGURATION (Luke 4:16-30)
The Theological Cluster

1. Jesus is the unique prophet on whom the Spirit remains. He is also the anointed one (Messiah) of God.
2. The King and the Kingdom are inseparably tied. There can be no Kingdom without the King.
3. Salvation comes from beyond the community. It is not community generated. The anointed one/the Messiah is the bearer of that salvation. The text is fulfilled in him.
4. The ministry of Jesus (and thereby the nature of the kingdom) is for the whole person. It involves:
proclamation evangelism, justice advocacy and compassion.
The climax of the inverted list is compassion. This compassion is meant to inform both the witness and the justice advocacy.
5. The setting of this three-fold ministry is that of a worshipping community. "The Synagogue" is mentioned at the beginning and the end. Without that setting, "Word" becomes "the Academy." "Justice advocacy" becomes "I demand my rights," and "compassion" turns into "Humanitarian aid." "Man's chief end is to glorify God and enjoy him forever."
6. Jesus refuses to endorse the nationalism of his own community. Rather he stands in prophetic judgment over it. He chooses to reprocess his hostility against Gentiles into Grace and he urges his audience to follow him. Among the Gentiles he finds models of faith to emulate.
7. A theology of mission is set forth. Both the centripetal and the centrifugal forces of mission are illustrated. The messenger goes out with the message (to the woman) and Naaman is attracted in to the community of faith and its prophet.
8. The universality of the message is affirmed. Jews (the people of Capernaum) and Gentiles (cf. vs. 25-27) are recipients of grace.
9. Faith is illustrated by two heroes, one woman and one man. The two are parallel. The woman is listed first. Equality between women and men in the kingdom is clearly affirmed.
10. Heroes of faith and Ethnicity. Jesus reaches beyond his own community and selects two Gentile heroes of faith who demonstrate authentic costly faithfulness. These he holds up as models for his people.
11. The message of the Good News calls for a radical response of faith. The faith here exhibited involves intellectual assent, trust and obedience.
12. The topic of rewards is opened. Significant far-reaching blessings are available to those who, like the woman and Naaman, make decisions of faith.
13. The reader can sense a foreshadowing of Jesus' coming, his ministry, his rejection, his death and his victory over death (resurrection).
